HANNA LEFT FORTUNE OF NEARLY $8,000,000

Senator's Body to Lie in State in the Marble Room, and All Official Washington Will Participate in the Imposing Services There.

Senate and House of Representatives Pass Resolutions of Respect-Manifestations of Grief in the National Capitol and Elsewhere.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 16 .- The value of the estate left by the late Senator Hanna is estimated at from seven to eight millions of dollars. It is stated that he owned at least 15 per cent. of the stock of the Cleveland Electric Railway, capitalized at $23,500,000. Its/cars will all be draped to-morrow.

In addition to being largely interested in vessel and iron-mining properties he was a director in the Union National Bank, Guardian Trust Company, the People's Savings and Loan Company, of this city, and the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railway. He was a large stockholder in the American Shipbuilding Company. He owned the Euclid Opera-House in. 3

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.-President Roosevelt has decided not to go to Cleveland to attend the funeral of the late Senator Hanna. He will, however, attend the services at the Capitol to-morrow. The President's decision was reached to-day after a conference with H. M. Hanna.

Arrangements for the funeral here and in Cleveland are being completed to-day.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE SENATE.

Formal announcement of the death of Senator Hanna was made in the Senate to-day immediately after the opening prayer. The duty of making the official statement fell to Senator Foraker, as Mr. Hanna's colleague. Most of the late Senator's colleagues were in their seats before the Senate was called to order, and their faces bore traces of the sorrow which all felt. The galleries, too, were crowded.

Senator Foraker said in his brief eulogy:

"He is mourned by all his countrymen-by his political associates not ciled in the modern papier-mache flat alone because he was their great organizing leader, who repeatedly led with its puny radiator and its hundred them to victory, but also and more especially because he had gained their affections and reigned in their hearts as a favorite-by his political opponents because they are chivalrous and generous enough to experience sorrow when a brave man falls, though he be of the opposition, and because they recognized in him a bold and fearless foeman, who commanded their respect and excited their admiration.

'For the present I content myself with offering the following resolutions, for which I ask present consideration."

The resolutions follow:

"Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. Marcus A. Hanna, late United States Senator from the State of Ohio.

"Resolved. That a committee of tw whom the President Pro-Tempore shall be one, be appointed by the presiding officer to take order for superintending the tuneral of Mr. Hanna, which shall take place in the Senate Chamber at 12 o'clock on Wednesday, Feb. 17th instant, and that the Senate will attend the same.

"Resolved, That as a further mark of respect, his remains be removed from Washington to Cleveland, O., for burial in charge of the Sergeant-at-Arms, attended by the committee who shall have full power to carry these resolutions into effect; and that the necessary expenses in connection therewith be paid out of the contingent fund of the Senate.

"Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these proceedings to the House of Representatives and invite the House of Representatives to attend the funeral in the Senate Chamber and to appoint a committee to act with the committee from the

"Resolved, That invitations be extended to the President of the United States and members of his Cabinet, to the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Diplomatic Corps (through the Secretary of State), the Admiral of the Navy and the Lieutenant-General of the Army to attend the funeral in the Senate Chamber."

THE HOUSE RESOLUTIONS.

Resolutions of a similar tone were passed by the House. Senator Hanna will be given a great public funeral on Wednesday. His body will rest in the Marble Room, adjoining the Senate Chamber, and there the people may pass and look their last on the face of the great Republican leader.

At noon on Wednesday the casket will be taken into the Senate Chamber and placed immediately before the desk of the presiding officer. The members of the House of Representatives will then enter the chamber and the dean and members of the diplomatic corps will follow. Then will come the United States Supreme Court, the President of the United States and his Capinet, the Commissioners of the Disrict of Columbia, the Committee on Arrangements of the two houses, the family and the personal friends.

The chaplain of the Senate will offer prayer, and after President pro Tem. Frye announces the suspension of the routine business of the Senate the funeral services will be conducted by the pastor selected by Mr. Hanna's family. There may or may not be a choir. Mr. Allison, being the oldest member (in point of service) will move to adjourn. The Capitol police will act as pallbearers.

MORGAN TO ATTEND FUNERAL.

J. P. Morgan went to Washington last night, and it was stated at his office to-day that he would attend the funeral services there of the late Senator Hanna The American Newspaper Publishers' Association, now in session in this city, to-day adopted the following:

"Resolved, That the American Newspaper Publishers' Association learned with profound regret of the death of Senator M. A. Hanna, and feel in common with the American people the great public loss to the business interests of the world, and further that this expression of our sorrow be and is hereby extended to his bereaved family.".

CITY IN GRIP OF ZERO WEATHER

TABLE SHOWING RANGE OF THE TEMPERATURE.

Another arctic wave swept over tattan and its adjoinings to-day and John Frost had another bargain festival of marking down thermometers to zero. Though the winter of 1903-1904 has been a constant succession of zero blasts and the mercury has dribbled down to several points below to-day's score there was a damp, penetrating iciness in the cold that gripped the city that intensified its sting and plus.

This new cold wave blew in on a strong northwest wind, that seemed to find its way through weather-strip and storm-door with an irresistible persist ency, and the thousands who are domi avenues of draught, shivered till their marrow tinkled.

Hapid transit was as usual refrigerated, with the packed passengers hudding together to set up a communal warmth that the stingy little electric radiators denied. The railroads have become so used to the rigor of zero weather that they were not much hampered by the new atmospheric dispersement to-day and no delays were remorted on any of the big roads.

Forcaster Emery said to-day that the cold snap was here to stay for at least two more days.

CZAR'S TROOPS PERISH FROM COLD ON BIG LAKE.

(By Associated Press.)

BERLIN, Feb. 16-6.04 P. M.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Tagliche Rundschau says that 600 Russian soldiers have been frozen to death while marching across Lake Baikal, Eastern Siberia

The correspondent adds that the temporary railroad across the lake is not yet completed, that a large detachment of troops was sent on a twenty-two-mile march over the ice-covered lake and that it is presumed that part of these troops lost their way in a snowstorm and perished.

RUSSIAN CRUISER IS BLOWN UP BY MINE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.-Admiral Alexieff has reported to the Ministry of Marine that the second-class cruiser Boyarin was accidentally destroyed by a mine in the harbor at Port Arthur on Feb. 13. One hundred and ninety-seven officers and men were killed.

If details were sent by Admiral Alexieff they have not been given out by the Ministry of Marine. The supposition is that the Boyarin was mov-Betting ing about the harbor and happened to be over a mine that was exploded by accident from shore.

RUSSIAN FLEET PUTS INTO A FRENCH PORT.

PARIS, Feb. 16 .- A despatch to the Figaro from St. Petersburg, timed 3.33 A. M. to-day, says:

"It has been decided to hold the Russian squadron from the Mediterranean, now in the Red Sea and bound for the Far East, at Jibutil, French Somaliland, until further orders. Admiral Rojdestwenski, Chief of the Marine Staff, is going to assume the naval command at Port Arthur. The stopping of the Russian squadron at Jibutil may lead to international complications, Jibutil being a neutral French port It is understood that France is not likely to ask the squadron to leave."
